Dear Friends!

May is a beautiful month of the year to celebrate motherhood and honoring the women who have chosen to be a foster parent, adoptive parent, and/or godmothers. This special day is celebrated in over 40 countries in this world and it is always the second Sunday in May in the U.S.

In ancient times these celebrations were often tied to gods and goddesses and maternal symbols of fertility, birth, creativity, and cycles of growth. The mother is seen as the protector and nourisher of children and hence, of all humanity.

As with all special days, businesses can't help but commercialize. However, most mothers are not interested in expensive or elaborate gifts. A simple handmade card, making breakfast, doing dishes, spending time together, picking flowers from the garden, saying kind and loving words are more cherished than what money can buy.

Some of us have motherly figures on the other side that we can't help but miss! Especially during times of celebrations and recognitions. Do know that they are not gone as they can see and hear better than ever! They can also be in several places at the same time! You say, "that's impossible!"

Well, it actually has been proven in controlled studies at the University of Arizona led by Dr. Gary Schwartz. He is a Professor of Psychology, Medicine, Neurology, Psychiatry and Surgery. Schwartz is the Director of the Laboratory for Advances in Consciousness and Health. There has been some other exciting research going on. Rumor has it he is working on a "Soul Phone" that could link us to the spirit world.

Wouldn't that be cool? Mediums might be obsolete in the near future. Who knows? Check out some mind-blowing information about this project at https://www.thesoulphonefoundation.org/

Until the soul phone becomes a reality, don't hesitate to contact me to get in touch the "old-fashioned" way with your loved ones. 😊

You all have a wonderful month, enjoy this time of year, and spread the LOVE!
